· Hi all,I need to recover my windows 7 license key. I have installed an 64 bit version of the product but it only crashed. When i used it the first time it came with a 32 bit key that was also factory provided.I used it to create a license. I deleted that key and a separate key you get from creating a new license. I would now like to recover the original 32 bit key. Please let me know how to recover it.
