In the mid-1990s, another AutoCAD Download With Full Crack feature, named "Povray", was introduced, which allowed users to draw 3D scenes from scratch. This feature required users to draw objects, merge them together, and fill the space with colors and textures. In 2003, Autodesk Research released "SceneCAD", a similar application for Linux, which supported OpenGL. It was discontinued on January 16, 2009. In 2009 Autodesk released a new line of Autodesk Design Suite products, the Autodesk Design Plugins for Eclipse, which include integration with the Eclipse IDE, allowing designers to easily build projects for architectural, mechanical, and other design projects in the Eclipse IDE. Autodesk Design Plugins for Eclipse were released for all Autodesk Design Suite products, including the flagship AutoCAD. Autodesk also released Revit in 2010, a combined 3D architectural and mechanical design

The USW first-team all-Big Ten team was announced Wednesday by the conference office. Kasey Hill from the University of Wisconsin was No. 1 overall in the class of 2015. She's the first Wisconsin basketball player to be ranked No. 1 since 1999, when Kim Klement became the first Badger to land the No. 1 spot. In her junior season, Hill has averaged 14.6 points and 5.3 rebounds per game as the Big Ten's leading scorer. She's also hit 35.4 percent of her 3-pointers, a Wisconsin record. Hill's high school career included a MVP award at Bonifay High School in Florida. The second first-team all-Big Ten team was announced earlier this week and features four Wisconsin standouts. Brittany McIntosh, a senior at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, leads the Badgers with 8.4 points and 5.7 rebounds per game. Erin Hohenberger, a senior from Beloit College, has averaged 10.9 points and 2.7 assists per game. Both Hohenberger and McIntosh were named to the second-team. Sarah Shaffer, a sophomore at the University of Minnesota-Duluth, is the second Badger to earn first-team all-Big Ten honors, joining Brittney Griner (2010). The Wisconsin women's basketball program is enjoying a surge in popularity, as the Badgers have reached two Final Fours and a national championship game in the past five seasons.Q: Why do I need to escape $(this) within function call? I have a function that calls a variable from within a data-attribute: function _(this){ var _data = $("#" + $(this).attr("data")); ... } If I run that I get an error: Uncaught TypeError
