At the center of this range is the peak that bears the name Wyrmdoom Crag. Upon this peak rise the remains of a city, a monument to the Elder Gods that flourished thousands of years ago. This was the center of power for a formidable network of elder magic in the area, and all slaver bands seeking the secrets of the arcane in the Wyrmdoom Crag will find this place of primordial power. Two such bands are in the region now. The Avernites are a high-ranking Illithid merchant clan well-known for their ruthless mastery of the murky and alien underworld. The Red Wizards, a mysterious cult led by a sorcerer whose power rivals even that of the Wyrmdoom, are hunting down the slaves of the Avernites. Their command of the arcane and the power of the old god Sathak has made them unstoppable. The Avernites are seeking an object known as the Stone of Chains, which they believe will allow them to wield the Elder Gods and control their armies of slaves. Each member of their merchant gang fears the power they believe the

Crimson Dragon is an Action RPG with Platform elements with a heavy emphasis on story and exploration. Lead the main character into a labyrinth of interconnected dungeons, where you will get to know the people of the world you live in, and discover a world full of mysteries. You have the option to revisit dungeons, pick up weapons and equipment acquired from defeated enemies, and to level up your character. Game Features: A massive world to explore - play as either a female protagonist or a male protagonist with both an in-game and in-show guide to lead you through the world. Deep branching story - Your character will experience multiple endings based on your choices. The game doesn't have a set end, and it's up to you to determine how you want to progress into it. Every major ending will have multiple short-time branches to complete, adding replayability and making the game much harder than just "beat the game and see what happens". A deep and multiple class system - Every class has unique abilities and characteristics, which can be improved upon with equipment, spells and skill slots. Multiple levels of difficulty - The game will support players of all backgrounds, skill-levels and preference of difficulty. The game will feature three difficulty levels: easy, normal and hard. High end graphics - Over a thousand hand-drawn vector graphics and unique artwork. A soundtrack full of 80's inspired music - Not sure if this is in the right thread, I'll post it if it's not. There's a new Japanese patch, new rooms, new enemy types and they've added yet another mini game. They're looking for new adventurers! "You've got plans to head to Radiant Terminus, eh? Well, if you're interested, I think I might have a place in Crimson Dragon for you." Not sure if this is in the right thread, I'll post it if it's not. Draw your own comic book (puns!) out of object combinations - Something I've often wondered about the point & click adventure genre - where are the good text-based stories? Yeah, this is a text adventure and not actually a point and click adventure game, but it was created with the constraint of keeping all the puzzles and game mechanics but without making use of any graphics - so if you dont have a graphics card that can handle Photoshop, or a tablet and high resolution screen, Adventure Lib might be the perfect alternative.Perfect for a rainy dayAdventure Lib is an educational game for our youth (adults and teens) on the importance of randomness and randomness and randomness.And why not something completely nonsensical and pointless and just plain random. It's one of the things that make life worth living - right?Thanks to all the following websites for their permission to include their work:

What's new in Fantasy Grounds - Mini-Dungeon 025: The Choker Lair (PFRPG):

Company Maso Marble Company, S.A., an Italian marble company, is the only remaining stone quarry in Italy specializing in the extraction of stone for architectural use. Originally founded in 1876 by Count Luigi Maso; this is now the fourth generation family-owned business, now with more than 100 years of history. Since its founding, it has seen a glorious history, and even survived the most severe difficulties of the last three decades. Today, the company makes a strategic alliance with Fabergé which is now headquartered in Parma, providing marble products. Location and the province Maso Marble is located in the Piacenza province, in the Emilia-Romagna region of Italy, where it owns two quarries, one in Busto San Paolo in the Averara Valley and the other in Poggio Paganella. The Busto San Paolo (178-hectare) quarry is the largest in Italy still in use, and it is easier to access from Piacenza - it is between the valley's Averara Belvedere and Averara del Carciano, both near the Borghi di Busto San Paolo. The Poggio Paganella quarry (200 hectares) is in the countryside of Palazzo dei Mendola - the owner of the marble company is Elena Mendola, the great-granddaughter of the Prince of Piacenza and Marquess of Genoa Giovanni Agostino, Count of Mendola. Climates and geological formations Its Busto San Paolo quarry is located at a height of 637 meters above sea level and is one of the highest and most exposed to the wind in the Emilia-Romagna region. The marble here is mainly white-gray and dark-gray, as well as some yellow-white and red-toned marble. The weather here is very cold because of the great height, but it also has a temperate climate with little precipitation, mainly in the winter. The average temperature is 5 °C and 2 °C in the winters and summers, respectively. The freeze and thaw cycle is more than 5 months long. The company in Milan In the 1970s the company changed its ultimate purpose, from importing and exporting marble to exporting it exclusively. Products such as carved natural stone, marble art, kiln-dried, cork and scenic elements began to be used by the firm that owns Maso Marble. The Previously, I am a self-taught PHP developer. I also have a diploma in Web Communication and Project Management. Right now I am in my last year at an apprenticeship at Campus Hercule. In addition, I am also the author of some free open source PHP projects. This could be checked out in our github page : In summary, I will do an internship at Campus Hercule, I will develop two projects: 1 - A video editor (currently being developed). It is a project dedicated to the development of a video editing application: in it you will be able to edit videos using a very simple but useful interface. 2 - A code generation application (currently being developed). It is a basic application that will be able to generate code from some data. It is a project dedicated to the development of a small,
