"In 'HyperMotion Technology,' the human element and real-life activities are no longer isolated to the lab but are now in every car, stadium, pitch and training environment," said Patrick Söderlund, Executive Vice President at EA SPORTS. "We are using this type of data to not only better simulate football, but also to improve the in-game look and feel of gameplay." Fifa 22 Crack introduces new goalkeepers and introduces a new player model inspired by Real Madrid's Toni Kroos. Head on over to EA SPORTS FIFA 20's YouTube channel to watch a demonstration of the new features of FIFA 22's gameplay from a series of gameplay videos. Check out the video below to learn more about FIFA 22's "HyperMotion Technology." The game will be available this Fall for Xbox One, Xbox 360, PlayStation 4 and PC.]]. Furthermore, the positive correlation between respiratory rate and body temperature may simply be a result of the relationship between the general activation of the body due to infection and the increased metabolic rate \[@pone.0217046.ref042]\]. The difference in the number of meals between the groups of animals did not seem to interfere in the animals' body temperature as it was found in other works \[@pone.0217046.ref043]--\[@pone.0217046.ref044]\]. Food restriction induced weight loss, as also found in other studies \[@pone.0217046.ref022]--\[@pone.0217046.ref023]\], was accompanied by a decrease in both the diurnal variations and amplitude of body temperature, which was more pronounced in the PR group. Interestingly, the amplitude was already decreased in HF animals at the end of the study and was not different from control animals. Furthermore, the only positive correlation between body temperature and respiratory rate observed in this study was found in PR animals (Figs 2{ref-type="fig"} and 4{ref-type="fig"}). Animals without food restriction already presented a diurnal variation of respiratory rate (Figs 2{ref-type="fig"} and 3{ref-type="fig"}).
