Â£ P g o Let your wea agesv hcl m Â± d 6 % 7 Who You are an innovative, creative engineer, a designer with a drive for hands-on crafting, crafting from scratch. Perhaps you are an artist passionate about art & art history. Maybe you are a writer, an avid photographer, a traveler or a dreamer. Bobby G Aesthetic ENVY Another positive outcome of an afternoon at the library, a friend just handed me a book of Derek Jarman's photographs that she suggested I read. And it's a good "visual" book, the photos are brilliant, but my favourite part was reading the accompanying text from Jarman's contemporaries. Here are a few excerpts: "I remember someone saying to me on the first day of shooting, 'Look, I don't know what you're going to do with this, but you've got to work on it, don't you?' And I said, 'Yes. Yes, of course I do. I'm working on it. I'm living it.'" "I fell in love with every shot. Every single one. It's a book that makes your whole life seem magical, the kind of book that makes you want to be there all the time. The next morning, Jarman went to London and it was his very last day on Earth." "I wonder what he'd have made of the photograph of the office... and the man in the bow-tie... and the two of them dancing to 'Strawberry Fields' by the Beatles. That photograph has a very powerful effect on me. I can't understand it, I can't work it out. I can't think of anything else to do when I get home." "One day at his home he told me he could sleep for a week straight." "It's the best job I've ever done. I loved it. I wanted to do it all my life. Sometimes you should leave the phone off the hook and leave it off. Why not? That's what you should do. And I really don't think people know that. They feel that the best and the only way to be a director is to have a desk and a swivel chair and it's very true, but there's a lot of other stuff... It could be through books. It could be in a library, looking at pictures, going on travels, feeling, remembering and
