Bild Games, due to the success of Gun Blade. Since 2001 this small independent game developer located in Paraty, Brazil produce different styles of games, Gun Blade created a lot of noise and gained the momentum that the company continued making popular the next brands, not to be mistaken for Gun Blade. The creation of Gun Blade brought about a new way of life for this independent company, which has worked hard to be recognized as a leading developer of action games in Brazil. After Gun Blade the company produced some nice games in the city, including the upcoming for release "Vagabond" (Oct.2011). Based on the design and creation of the Gun Blade V.XIII that includes several levels and characters, plus new characters, cities and new weapons. Vagabond divides the game into two scenarios: The story begins with the witch and a few pig hunters trying to find the source of a river in the mountains. After escaping from the witch hunters, which more or less fell victim to her transformation, the player goes into the storyline of a comic book style based on the game: Vagabond itself: a story about a man who left the city to search for his wife and for the purpose in their separation. The game incorporates both environments and characters with animation by artist Roberto Dias. "The game comes out in August this year and the price is $20.00" (Bild Games).

At the beginning of the game, you do not have a village and the player receives a certain amount of money. But, as the title suggests, the player must take a piece of land (the Dike) and build on it. This can be achieved in four steps: Collecting basic materials Selecting a location for the construction of the dike Building a dike and settling onto it Looking after the village you have established In the course of the game, the player is faced with different challenges, for which he/she must find appropriate solutions. This depends on the length of the dike, the land you have and on your resources. After a certain number of steps, the player needs to defend his/her village against the water in the third part of the game "Deichgraf". In this phase, depending on the available tools, the player must defend his/her city against different natural catastrophes. With the help of different tools, the player will be able to build defenses against the rain, surges, storms and floods. This is achieved by the construction of dikes, levees, flood walls, pumps, and other measures. As a Dike Warden in East Frisia in the 16th century, it is up to you to prove your skills in many different scenarios! Each of these scenarios presents you with different challenges and will try to force you to your knees by all means. You will have to adjust to these new situations to get the upper hand in the fight against the water. Dike Warden: The Waterfront PC - Steam As a Dike Warden in East Frisia in the 16th century, it is up to you to prove your skills in many different scenarios! Each of these scenarios presents you with different challenges and will try to force you to your knees by all means. You will have to adjust to these new situations to get the upper hand in the fight against the water. A long time ago, during the medieval ages, East Frisia was an important trading station. The most valuable commodities were wood and fish. Ships from all over the world visited the coast of East Frisia and purchased wood. Other goods, such as textiles, gold, silver and medicines, were also traded, as were slaves from the surrounding countries. Most of these goods were exported to the cities around the shores of the Zuider Zee, Amsterdam and Rotterdam. In exchange, the East Frisian fishermen supplied the southern
