"Pangu_iOS_7.1_7.1.1_Untethered" hitmanpro.Chris Gayle has not featured for the Mumbai Indians team in the Indian Premier League (IPL). The West Indies batsman and India's most prolific T20 run scorer was the first name dropped by Mumbai's skipper, Rohit Sharma, in the pre-season of the franchise's 15th edition. However, Gayle's exclusion has not been publicly confirmed - his agent maintains it is "bureaucratic" in nature. "Chris Gayle was there for three years. Now, we understand the reason why he did not play," Darren Sammy, Gayle's agent, told ESPNcricinfo. "He was there for three years so he is a big part of the Mumbai Indians team and the franchise. His job is to play for the team. He would like to play at the No. 5 slot because it is his usual playing position but for whatever reason the team is not in a position where they want to retain him. "I don't believe it is a money issue. It is a situation where the franchise is not in a position to retain him. It happens. A lot of players are not playing after the 2015 World Cup. It is just sometimes that the decision is taken by the franchise. We respect Chris's decision. We understand the timing of his decision." While the general manager, Kunal Kapoor, said that Mumbai Indians were still in the process of finalising Gayle's place in the squad, his decision to not play in the tournament has thrown up more questions. The Indian Premier League schedule was released in January and included an over-abundance of matches in the first four weeks of the tournament. In Gayle's absence, Mumbai won two matches before losing four and finishing fourth in the standings. When asked why Gayle had not been released from his Mumbai contract, Sammy said: "Chris was a part of the contract from October 2014. He was not playing the last three years. That is why his contract was extended. When he was playing he was still a part of the franchise. He
