journaling. I need to install Windows on my laptop. When I do so, the partition-manager changes to the new partition type. In order to load Windows, I need to format the partition as ext4. Since I have a reiserfs journaling, it can not handle this, therefore I have to disable the reiserfs journaling in order to load Windows. When I first installed Ubuntu, I had the reiserfs journaling enabled for my system files. Is there a way to enable ext4 journaling and disable the reiserfs journaling? A: What you want to do is impossible. When you format the partition, it will be formatted as ext4. The filesystem defaults you are currently using is one of the modes which are most likely ext4, which you can check using fdisk -l. So, you have a choice: Stop using reiserfs, which is mainly a backup file system Stop using reiserfs as a journal, which is your current option

You probably want option 1, but the way you have it setup right now is option 2. For example, you

What's New In GIM Messenger?

Falling in love can be an interesting and sometimes even hard experience, especially when we are in our older age. There are some simple ways to deal with this kind of issue. If you have never experienced what love is like, then you better learn how to deal with relationships when they are going on. In this article we will teach you some ways to deal with love. Friends • Falling in love is something interesting. You feel like an adult when you really start understanding love. To begin with, you better know what love is. Do you really know what love is? That is an important question. If you really think about it, love is all about feeling comfortable in an ordinary situation. This is the most pleasant feeling in the world. In fact, love is the most common thing in our life. We love our family, friends, relatives, and even our pets. People also love sports like eating, drinking, and making people happy. Love is also the activity that motivates you to earn money and pay your salary. Therefore, love is also more common in our modern times. • Our parents teach us how to deal with love. They will tell us that if we want to get an advanced education, we should find some good-looking women or handsome men who can pay our bills. To improve your social status, then you better get married and make children to show that you are a good person. However, it is not like love can be achieved this way. On the contrary, love is something very good and beautiful. You better think about love rather than your social life and your marriage. And if you really want to know how to deal with love and how to get a good relationship with girls, then you better read these five tips. Tip 1: Don't be afraid of showing your feelings. • When you are in love, you will feel afraid of showing your feelings to your lover. You may be afraid that he or she will think that you have found someone else or that you like another person. But these are not true. Why are you afraid of showing your love to your loved one? Because we don't want to hurt other people? This is the biggest misunderstanding. Your lover will be very happy if you can prove your love and show your feelings to him or her. The problem is that you feel insecure when you show your feelings. Everyone will admire your patience, sincerity, and good manners, but nobody wants to
