The six percent gain was the biggest monthly percentage increase since July, 2002. It was still far below the national sales rate of approximately 700,000-per-month which, if sustained, would mark the best sales pace in seven years. The nationwide six percent rise was offset by a three percent slide in new home sales in December, 2012. Click chart to enlarge. Source: US Census Bureau Nationwide, new home sales were up by 32 percent since 2011, which was the best year on record. New home sales in November, 2012, came in at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 564,000. That was nine percent above the November, 2011, sales rate. Looking back 12-months, new home sales were up by 43 percent.Q: How to find number of combinations for each element How to find number of combinations for each element in an array. for example : 1 2 3 0 3 4 1 0 4 0 2 4 2 3 4 For the array above with elements 1, 2, 3, number of combinations for element 1 = 0 + 3 + 1 = 4 number of combinations for element 2 = 0 + 3 + 1 = 4 number of combinations for 6d1f23a050
