Lionfish is an online forum for both Autodesk and Third-party users to discuss 3D, Product Design, Digital Prototyping, and other topics related to Autodesk and third-party software applications. It is administered by a non-profit organization of the Autodesk Community and it is not affiliated with Autodesk, Inc. Any personal and confidential information that you submit on Lionfish may not be secure. Use the Lionfish email address and send your question to our Technical Support team. It's a very popular email address and we receive thousands of messages every day from users with questions about Autodesk software. We reply quickly to your questions and post your feedback. The forum gives you the ability to raise topics and ask questions. If you feel strongly about something and want to contact us, you can do it using the Lionfish email address or send an email to techsupport@autodesk.com. As with other Windows-based applications, you may need to run Autodesk applications on a virtual machine using VirtualBox. This will allow you to take advantage of all the benefits of the Cloud, including access to a range of Autodesk products from anywhere. More information on VirtualBox can be found on the official website. If your installation or product download fails, try using the Browser Download method instead (not available in macOS). We recommend disabling pop-up blockers and trying a different browser, such as Chrome or Explorer. For more solutions, check out our guide to troubleshooting Autodesk product download issues. Do you want help getting up to speed on Fusion 360 fast Autodesk and our Learning Partners are offering a fully funded personalized training for educators to help them adopt Fusion 360 in the classroom.
