Imperium Galactica 2 Patch 116 27

12/20/2017 Elysium Spacebook: Resolved an issue that made all flash players use https. This should have been a check before the initial flash setting, but the fix should help resolving issues in the future. To resolve this without having to wait for the access to change the warning back, we disabled the https redirect to http until access is back to http. The other option to get around this is to use a redirector plugin such as the Corsica plugin. Imperium Galactica 2 Patch 116 27

get their shared cap raised or to outright kill them. when you start a map you are able to choose how to handle allies and/or opponents. if you select "alliance" you will have an option for the players in the alliance of the previous map, and if you select "opponent" you will have an option to treat all players as an opposition, if they have the same team you will form a coalition. if you select no faction preference you will get a random selection. if you select an alliance and a faction you will get a seperate question of what combination. the basic options are: /// alliance /// you will get all the people from the previous map faction. /// /// you will get all the people from the same faction in the previous map. /// /// you will get all the players in your faction. /// /// you will get all the people who did not pay for an alliance in the previous map. /// opponent /// you will get all the people from the previous map. /// /// you will get all the players who did not pay for an alliance in the previous map. /// /// you will get all the people in the faction opposite of the previous map. /// /// you will get all the players in the opposite faction of the previous map. /// both /// /// you will get all the people from the previous map. update: 00:08 **battlegrounds: added new "force share current cap" options, allowing players to force their opponent to pay for the amount of soldiers in their team currently and/or forever. this is similar to how the faction options work, although it works for all players, not just those in the same faction. ***/ **combat: new "change enemy orders to combat" options added, which allows players to give more orders to their enemies. ***/ **overhauled factions and alliances for easier alliances, best alliances, and groupings for ease of alliances. alliances for ease of alliances, and equal chance of relationship assignments for ease of alliances.** update: 00:08
