Rakhiya De Shabad Pdf NEW! Download

When you wake up in the morning, you often want to feel peaceful. You want to feel calm, not overwhelmed. You wish to leave all the tensions and worries of the day behind you. Now, what you may not realize, but this is what Guru Arjan Dev Jee was hoping for and wished for you. He prayed that all of your worries and tensions might leave your mind and you could just relax. If you follow the Guru's instructions you will be able to start each day feeling calm, joyful and relaxed. There are a series of Shabads that are referred to as Rakhiya De Shabad. One of the key instructions within these four lays are to do Rakhiya De Shabad when you wake up in the morning. When you are going to sleep at night, do it before Kirtan Sohila or before Seh (Reading Guru's words). The picture shows more of the instructions that are included in this De Shabad. It explains that you should do Rakhiya De Shabad before going to bed. In the first portion the Guru asks for your keshubh (good will towards the family) and asks that you protect your family. In the second portion he asks that you not start any family problems, such as who owns what or arguing over sharing, so that you both are able to peacefully share in the life. I wrote this article to share with you the power of the Guru and the power of our prayers. The Guru gives us these shabads and we can go to Him as the source for comfort, strength and healing. Read on to find out more. This article was very difficult for me to write about this personal and sacred part of my life. The more I have read about the Sikh faith, the more I have realized my own incomplete understanding of it. I have many friends who are Sikh and I have realized that the Sikh community is so large and we share so many beliefs. We do not have one way to be our Sikh identity. In this article, I shall share with you a private shabad for you to comfort yourself when you are feeling sad or questioning where your faith is. I hope I have provided you with a space that brings you Peace and Love. It has nothing to do with poverty, or racism or anything. It is just God and love.
