In brief: The images used for the German grumpy cat look-alike ads by CDL London have been released. Grumpy Cat is a feline social media meme born in 2012. Some 26.3 million people follow her on Instagram and other social media outlets. The artist, a five-year-old Canadian named Tardar Sauce, has amassed more than 858 million followers on Instagram and Facebook, many of whom watch her every move and 'love' her. CDL London, who created a Grumpy Cat look-alike a year ago, used images from two sources - Tardar Sauce's own social media accounts, and the actual cat. "I created my own business model for 'grumpy cat'. Because I decided that this was the way to work. This way we always know where our money comes from," said Tardar Sauce in an interview with the BBC. Grumpy Cat's owner, Tabatha Bundesen, previously said that Tardar Sauce's social media presence was working better than her company's own. The platform had helped them grow, and at the same time, sustain Grumpy Cat's brand.
