No matter if you have an old device, a new one or even the Internet browser running on the PC is giving a headache. If you are using Internet Explorer, you will be shown the Internet Explorer error message stating that a plug-in is not installed or is having an issue. Error message: You might find other messages on the Internet and even on this website saying that you could try to reinstall IE, clean your cache and use a different Internet browser. It seems that there is no other solution than to completely re-install the application. You might also try installing the advanced options pack and disable some toolbars and add-ons. However, there is another solution which you could try. If you are running Windows XP Service Pack 2, you might download the important updates from the following link and install them: SmartFTP software is a client application that is designed to transfer files to and from a FTP or FTP+ server. It also allows you to transfer files to and from local file systems and different cloud services. Even though it is a client application, you can still manage its settings from the Windows Control Panel. If you are looking for another solution, you could try to install a different FTP software application. While there is a wide variety of file transfer tools out there on the Internet, some are much more popular than others. A good choice would be to download 3a67dffeec

File Photo As the family and friends of Aali Jahan, a nine-year-old girl killed by the accused in Kolkata, wait for a miracle in the wake of her sudden demise, it has come to light that two girls, both aged below 10, were reportedly kidnapped while visiting Aali's grave last month. Officials from the West Bengal police said they have registered a case and have taken statements from the complainants. A "note" about "Khali" (slave) was found on the dead body, naming the kidnapped women and children and saying that they were "stolen" by a man and his two sons. It was found with the body on 26 August. The girl's family, on learning about the note, filed a police complaint on the same day. The complaint named Muhakim and his two sons, Sumon and Ikram, who are absconding. Under Section 366 of the Indian Penal Code, the accused are booked for kidnapping. The police have taken a promise from the complainants that they will inform them of their locations. Aali, who was found dead in the Bidyasagar neighbourhood of north Kolkata on 24 August, was the youngest of two siblings. Her family used to live in Rampurhat but had moved to the area after Aali was born. On learning that the parents were not at home when they returned home after visiting the grave of Aali on 25 August, Sumon, the elder son, contacted his father and informed that the two girls, who were travelling in a rickshaw, had been "stolen". The rickshaw-wala's contact details were found in the "note". Aali's parents told the police that they would call them back once the two girls
