Because it is easier and faster for us to post our games/songs for you to download, we decided to go with direct download links. Why do we record or post our screen movies? To let you know how to play the game. We post the videos as a benefit to you and us. We also encourage you to spend as much time as you can playing the games we post. Lastly, because we are a music group and our members are mostly software and video game programmers, our members have taught us a lot about the games we post. We also did a screen shot feature of a very old game that has since been updated. Disclaimer Although our games are very playable on most computers and smartphones, there are times when a specific game will not be able to be played because of system requirements. We do not condone downloading any videos or games without permission. We also do not condone spreading an infection or virus with files that may contain a virus. Secondly, most computers and smartphones have to be configured in advance for gaming.Q: setting display property of div to none asdf c6a93da74d
